Bulletin # 310

4th August 2020

Dear Stakeholders,

UPDATE ON BARREL SHOP OPERATIONS CHANGES IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19

In light of the recent surge in positive Covid-19 cases, The Port of Port-of-Spain wishes to advise its stakeholders of the following changes and guidelines at the Barrel Shop, which are in keeping with the present Covid-19 health and safety requirements.

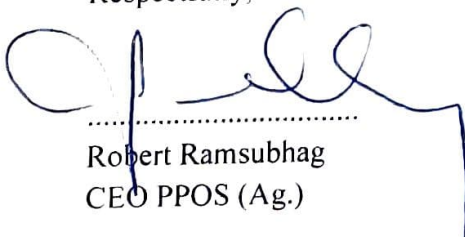

Changes are highlighted below in bold for ease of reference.

- The One-Stop Barrel Shop will now facilitate a maximum of 25 customers per day. 15 Personal Effects customers (Non-trade) and 10 Industrial customers (Trade) Hours for delivery of goods will be from 8:00am to 2:00pm - Monday to Friday.
- Customers are required to refrain from visiting the Barrel Shop if unwell.
- No customer will be allowed to enter the Barrel Shop if exhibiting symptoms of the flu (coughing, sneezing etc.). This also applies to drivers of vehicles who are collecting/receiving cargo.
- Customers will be screened before entering the Barrel Shop.
- Customers will be required to wear a face mask upon entry.
- Customers are required to use social distancing of 6ft as per guidelines as much as possible while within the Barrel Shop.
- On entry into the Barrel Shop ALL customers are required to use the sanitization stations to sanitize hands.

Please be reminded these changes are in the best interest of all. Thank you for your kind consideration and hygienic practices while visiting The One-Stop Barrel Shop.
